

JYC SALMON DERBY RULES

1. Only JYC members paid-up by the start of the Derby are eligible.
2. Eligibility and entry is Automatic. There is no entry fee or form for the JYC Salmon Derby. (The August JYC membership roster will determine eligibility).
3. To be eligible for the JYC Derby you must also be a participant in the Golden North Salmon Derby and follow all those Derby rules. All Golden North Derby Rules will apply to the JYC Derby. Any Golden North Derby Rule infractions will disqualify you from the JYC Salmon Derby. READ AND KNOW THE GOLDEN NORTH DERBY RULES! “Derby participants must comply with all Alaska Dept. of Fish & Game sports fishing regulations” (which also includes regulations for participants while fishing from either a commercial fishing vessel or a registered charter vessel). “Contestants cited for violating any ADFG regulations while in the Derby will be disqualified”.
4. Simply provide a legible digital image or pdf image of your Derby weigh-in ticket from the Golden North Salmon Derby by email to admin@juneauyc.org OR present the ticket or photocopy to any JYC Board Member by midnight on Friday following the Derby. However, if a JYC member places in the Golden North Derby, you are automatically entered in the JYC Derby without providing a weigh-in ticket to a JYC board member.
5. The largest salmon caught and weighed-in by an eligible JYC member determines the JYC winner. In the case of a tie, the earliest date stamp is the winner. You need not have placed in the Golden North Derby to win the JYC Derby.
6. The JYC Derby prize is a One Year JYC Membership, and the JYC member who's name is on the Derby weigh-in ticket will have their photo, name, fish weight and year engraved on the JYC Salmon Derby Plaque.
7. The JYC Derby winner will be announced at the September JYC dinner meeting.
